

Lucy Tufts

Attorney

Most people have a visceral reaction to the word "lawsuit," and it is often a negative one. But consider the developments that Lucy's lawsuits have brought to our community: the restoration of a squandered retirement pension, the imposition of safety protocols for heavy equipment, the revision of a defectively designed industrial facility, and the rejection of fraudulent business practices. Litigation is often scorned and disparaged precisely because of its enormous power to do something simple – compel change.

Lucy is a trial attorney with the law firm of Cunningham Bounds. She has tried numerous cases to verdict, briefed legal issues before the Alabama Supreme Court, and has presented arguments to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. Through her work representing people who have been killed, injured, or defrauded, she has obtained over $300 million in verdicts, judgments, and settlements that have made the Gulf Coast safer, more equitable, and more secure.

"LITIGATION IS OFTEN SCORNED AND DISPARAGED PRECISELY BECAUSE OF ITS ENORMOUS POWER TO DO SOMETHING SIMPLE – COMPEL CHANGE."
